HUERTA DECLARES WAR

TWO INJURED AS RESULT OF MOTORCYCLE ACCIDENT

Antone Berthelsen of Berkeley, a Motorcycle Rider, Collides With Peyton Gardner, Richmond Resident, Which Results in Serious Injury to Both Men—Victims of Accident Now in Hospital Suffering From Serious Injuries— Berthelsen Sustained Fracture of the Skull and May Lose His Life as Result—Accident Happens on Main Thoroughfare of the City—Reports from Craven Hospital Are That Berthelsen is Very Low.

Antone Berthelsen of Berkeley, as a result of a motorcycle collision last evening in which he struck Peyton Gardner, the aged father of F. J. Gardner, well known realty man, was rendered unconscious for more than ten hours.

Berthelsen, besides several lacerations, received a bad fracture of the skull together with a fractured hip, while Gardner's injuries were of a very serious nature.

Berthelsen was traveling along Macdonald avenue at a high rate of speed on a motorcycle when he noticed Gardner attempt to cross at Twelfth street. The machine struck the aged man with a mighty impact, hurling him to the ground while Berthelsen was thrown against the curb. An emergency call was sent into the Craven hospital from the Mt. Diablo garage with the result that the two unfortunate victims were given immediate medical attention.

Gardner when picked up was bleeding profusely from his ears, nose and mouth, while a large cut at the base of Berthelsen's skull spouted a stream of blood that took considerable time to check.

Berthelsen's wife who resides in Berkeley was notified of her husband's precarious condition and she rushed to his bedside.

Just who was to blame for the accident is hard to say. Had Berthelsen not been traveling along the avenue at such a high rate of speed it is probable that he would have had time to turn out of the way of Gardner, who thinking the motorcycle rider would take the right hand side stopped and started backing toward the center of the street.

The Truth About the Mexican Situation By One Who Knows

The following article on the true situation in the Mexican republic was expressly written for the Record-Herald by Arthur Chippendale, a mining engineer, who resided in our sister republic for many years and who recently came to Richmond to reside pending the settlement of the internal strife in that country. Mr. Chippendale, owing to his familiarity with the Mexican people and with the customs of the country, writes authoritively, and our readers will be able to get the right perspective of what the two factions now fighting in Mexico are liable to do now that the United States has invaded their shores.

(By Arthur Chippendale)

During the next few weeks developments are liable to be so varied and unexpected, displaying the situation in such a quick succession of new phases that few will attempt to recall the long series of events which have led up to the present crisis, much less to subject the dispute to an impartial analysis now that the affair has been converted into a national issue. The exuberant patriotism which is typical of the American might now find expression in "My Country, Right or Wrong." But if he listens he might hear an echo from the southern side of the Rio Grande.

The problem is now too complex and involved to admit of any easy solution. Since the death of Madero and until quite recently it seemed to be to a great extent a personal dispute between President Wilson and President Huerta, the former having, by his so-called Mexican policy (consisting in the constant harrassing of the Federal and discrimination in favor of the Rebels) against the wishes and welfare of the foreign residents in Mexico, President Wilson did not seem to favor discussing the situation with those who had lived and had interests in Mexico and knew the country and its people best; instead, he arbitrarily evolved a "Watchful Waiting" policy which was no policy at all and of which I would fain believe he has eventually seen the futility. It should be remembered

FOUR AMERICAN MARINES AND 200 MEXICANS KILLED

American Troops Under Galling Fire Poured From Housetops at Vera Cruz—American Representative in Mexico City is Given His Passports—Rear Admiral Badger Arrives With Fleet at Seaport City Captured by American Forces—Many Troops to be Landed Today—Wilson is Saddened by Fatal Fight and Says He is Very Sorry—Missionaries Flee From Battle-Scarred Country.

Begin Shelling City

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Consul Canada's latest dispatch, which was filed at Vera Cruz early today and was given out at 11 a. m., says:

"Firing commenced at daybreak. Ships now shelling southern part of city. Large force landed from Admiral Badger's fleet before daylight.

"Copies of proclamation issued by Rear-Admiral Fletcher requesting at once the co-operation of the mayor and municipal authorities in restoring order have been distributed, but have been unable as yet to get in communication with these officials.

"Major Butler's force of marines from Tampico are now ashore. Expect the city will be quiet later in the morning.

"Estimate of Mexicans killed and wounded up to late last night approximately 150.

"Battleships here—Florida, Utah, Arkansas, Vermont, New Hampshire, New Jersey, South Carolina, Texas, [illegible] and Dolphin. Transport Hancock with marines reported due. American forces advance 8 a. m. under guns of war vessels to take city."

The Mexican sharpshooters occupied the roofs of houses in the central part of the city and were able to fire down on American marines and bluejackets as they neared the land from the vessels lying off shore.

Consul Canada, under date of 9 a. m., today cabled that he expected fighting to cease within an hour. The total American forces ashore numbered 3000. They were well into the city and had the situation in hand.

At a conference on board the battleship Arkansas, Rear-Admiral Badger and Fletcher decided this morning to complete the investment of Vera Cruz.

Rear-Admiral Badger organized a landing force composed of 2700 marines and bluejackets and before daybreak these had all been set ashore.

VERA CRUZ, April 21.—Vera Cruz was captured yesterday morning by marines and sailors landed from the American fleet commanded by Rear Admiral Fletcher.

While the American forces were marching through the city to occupy the Custom House, they were fired upon by Mexican troops, commanded by General Maas. The fire was returned.

The fighting, which started soon after 11 o'clock, continued throughout the day.

At 10 o'clock last night the American forces, occupying the Custom House, the American consulate and the Naval Office, are still under fire. Sniping by Mexican from surrounding houses is continuous.

Four Americans were killed and twenty-one wounded in the first half hour of fighting.

Two hundred Mexicans have been killed.

It is possible that the full extent of the casualties among the Mexicans will prove greater. Scattered bands of Mexican troops were under shell fire from the battleships and under machine-gun fire throughout the day.

INVENTION WILL ELIMINATE MUCH ANNOYING SMOKE

A large number of people and several members of the city council were attracted to Park Place this afternoon where a public demonstration of a smoke precipitator was being given by C. W. Lent, of Stockton, an inventor.

The smoke, whether from oil, coal or wood, after being run through several tanks of water comes out of the stack in the form of vapor. Lent, when interviewed by a Record-Herald reporter, stated that the smope precipitator would eliminate all the difficulties experienced by Richmond people at the present time from the smoke given out by the various factories were his device used.

MR. V. HAROLD BROWN TO DON COP UNIFORM

An unconfirmed rumor was current on the streets today to the effect that three new cops would be added to the Richmond police force next Saturday and that the individuals to receive stars were V. Harold Brown, Stanford and Sprague.

Inquiry at the police headquarters failed to confirm the rumors although Mr. Brown, in conversation with a representative of the Record-Herald this morning intimated that he expected to become one of the new stars in the police firmament of Richmond. Mr. Brown also displayed a police star with No. 12 engraved on its face.

Dr. Stork paid an official visit to the Evans apartments, corner of Eighth street and Macdonald avenue, last evening and left a bouncing seven-pound baby girl to gladden the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Scullem.

Italian Run Down By A Local Street Car

Serafino Panateda, the Italian who was run down at a late hour last evening near East Shore park will probably live although Drs. U. S. Abbott, C. L. Abbott and H. L. Carpenter were compelled to remove a large part of the man's skull in an effort to relieve the blood pressure upon his brain. Motorman W. L. Smith and Conductor C. A. Andrews, the crew in charge of the car, did everything possible in an effort to bring the car to a stop before it struck the man, but according to their statements, Panateda must have been intoxicated for he stepped right onto the track.

The first that Motorman Smith knew of the affair was when he noticed the man starting to cross the tracks a few yards ahead of him. Seeing that the fellow would be struck he rang his bell and applied the brakes, which, before the car could be brought to a stop had dragged the unfortunate victim a considerable distance. Had it not been for the fact that the front fender of the car picked Panateda off the ground and hurled him between the tracks it is probable that he would have been mangled by the car wheels.

When picked up by the car crew Panateda was bleeding from numerous facial abrasions besides a large fracture in the base of his skull. He was placed on board the car and rushed to the foot of Washington avenue where he was carried on a stretcher to the offices of Dr. C. L. Abbott.

A close investigation of the man's condition at the hospital by Dr. U. S. Abbott revealed the fact that his skull would have to be trepanned in an effort to save his life. Although no sign of life was visible Drs. U. S. Abbott, C. L. Abbott and H. L. Carpenter worked until 3:00 o'clock this morning before the patient started to regain consciousness during which time they had removed a section of his skull extending from the base of the brain to the upper section of his right ear.

The operation was perhaps one of the most delicate that has been performed by local physicians for many years and with the recovery of the man will mark a stepping stone in the advancement of surgery.

"CARRAMBA" PEONS PUT BIG GUN ON FLAT CAR HERE

Just because one of four large cannons en route from San Francisco to the naval testing grounds at Washington happened to roll off a flat car in the local Santa Fe yards this afternoon and because a large force of Mexican section hands were put to work placing it back on the car was no grounds for the rumor that Richmond was to be the next town to be attacked by Huerta.

The cannon, a large trunet gun, to be used on one of the new battleships now under construction, took the combined efforts of an electric crane besides that of two score of peons to replace it back on the car from which it had dropped.

SCRATCH FROM BRASS POINT POISONS MAN

Albert Mills, an employe of the Pacific Porcelain works, treated by Dr. Hall Vestal today for a bad attack of blood poison, due to a small cut which he received several days ago from a brass pen point.

Mills paid no attention to the scratch at the time until today when he found that he had lost all use of his right hand. Dr. Vestal hopes to have the young fellow on the road to recovery soon.

Mooney Trial Begins Today at Martinez

(Special to Record-Herald)

The second trial of Thomas J. Mooney, charged with having high explosives in his possession, arrested with two companions at Point San Pablo by the Richmond police, began this morning before Judge Barber, of Shasta county, sitting in extra session.

The second trial will probably be a repetition of the first when the jury disagreed, standing 6 to 6 and which were discharged by the trial judge.

District Attorney A. B. McKenzie and his assistant A. S. Ormsby will conduct the prosecution and Mooney will be defended by Maxwell McNutt and T. D. Johnston.

Attorney Grady Sues Richmond Realty Man

Attorney W. D. Grady has delegated his brother lawyer, T. D. Johnston, to file a suit in the superior court against James Molenari, the well known real estate man in this city, for the recovery of an attorney's fee of $500, alleged to be due from the defendant to the lawyer.

Mr. Molenari states that he entered into a written contract with Grady to plead a cast in the superior court and that he agreed to give the attorney $100; that he overpaid Grady $35.00 and feels confident of beating the case when it comes to trial.

"To Observations Which Ourselves We Make, We Grow More Partial, for the Observer's Sake."

THE MEXICAN SITUATION

That General Huerta refused to accede to the demands of the United States in a matter for which there is no end of precedent and which is in perfect accord with national ethics, can only be accounted for upon the hypothesis that he has some time ago figured out that the best way for him to save his own skin is to start something with the United States and thus head off the inevitable result which is now close upon him of losing all, including, most likely, his own head, to the Constitutionalists under Carranza and Villa. Either that or he has schemed that an action such as the United States is now taking will furnish him with a good excuse to call all Mexico, including the northern half now in the hands of the so-called rebels, to resist oppression and sinister designs on the part of the hated "gringoes." Huerta is a crafty old fox, and he has doped out one of these two plans long ago, and has been playing up to them, or else he would not have hesitated a minute to salute our flag when called upon to do so, in accordance with custom under similar circumstances. His talk and excuses for not saluting the flag of this country is all a part of the play and is so flimsy as to the more clearly show the deliberate plot behind it all to bring about some such occasion as has arisen.

The incident complained of by President Wilson is only one of many similar insults that have been continually heaped upon Americans and this government by the Huerta following and just happened to be the last straw upon the camel's back. President Wilson has certainly been patient and forbearing in his treatment of the Mexican situation, doing much more to avoid a clash than most men would do, but he finally concluded that the United States had practiced forbearance to the point where patience ceases to be a virtue. But because of his long continued patience and forbearance the people are all the more heartily in accord with him now that he has finally concluded to administer a stinging rebuke to a miserable usurping Greaser who ought to have been taken out and shot long ago.

That Huerta has deliberately sought to bring about intervention by the United States for the purpose of saving his own hide from the revolutionists, there is no reasonable doubt, and now if he has started something that he cannot stop, he will have no one to blame but himself. We hope it will go through to a finish now, whether it be a peaceful blockade of the harbors, as in the case at first at Cuba, a policing of the whole country, or a war of conquest and annexation. The hand of destiny decrees that this government own all the land between here and the Panama Canal, sooner or later, and it may as well come one time as another.

We have maintaned from the first that despite all of President Wilson's patient "watching and waiting," that square, protruding jaw of our president betokened none of the characteristics of the weakling, and that he would, did occasion arise, display the same degree of determination in one instance as courtesy and consideration in another, and now it looks like we made a good guess. No one knows what a few days may bring forth, but whatever it is, the American people have every confidence in President Wilson, and will back him to the full limit, with army, navy, powder, ball and shell, men, money and blood.

Pinole Times chides us upon unwarranted silence regarding Richmond's marvelous baby crop this season. Say, you Ebsen, Richmond has so many bumper crops that there are not half enough harvest hands. We are raising baby rabbits, baby chicks and Helen Blazes, out on the 2x4 ranch, but the kind of babies you refer to are out of our jurisdiction. That is the duty of the statistics editor, and he's too busy, as he has just had twins at his house.

Tracy must be a good town. Never seen it, but judge so because it has a good paper in The Press. Only good towns have good papers. JUDGE SARGENT CANDIDATE FOR APPEALS BENCH

Judge B. V. Sargent of Monterey county has announced his candidacy for election to the short term of the District Court of Appeals. Judge Sargent is the second candidate to announce his intention to run for the short term against Judge Richards, the incumbent, who was appointed recently by Governor Johnson to fill the unexpired term, former Collector of the Port Frederick S. Stratton having made known his candidacy three weeks ago.

Although the incumbent of the Superior Court of Monterey county, Judge Sargent, is well known in San Francisco, he has spent much of his time in this city during the past three years, sitting in the Extra Session Department of the local Superior Courts.

Judge Sargent was born in Monterey county of Scotch and Irish parents in 1863. He attended the public schools until he was fifteen, when he entered Santa Clara college from which he graduated three years later. The same year he entered Yale College and was graduated as a bachelor of law in 1887.

Argyl Campbell, chairman of the Eighth Congressional District Democratic Committee, comprising the counties of San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, San Benito, Monterey, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara and Ventura, has issued a call for a state conference to be held in San Jose May 8 and 9.

Campbell invited all members of the Democratic State Central Committee to take part in the conference, and suggests that 1,000 delegates be selected proportioned among counties according to the vote cast at the last election for governor.

The purpose of the gathering, according to Campbell's circular, is "to unify the Democracy and to indorse candidates, considered advisable by the conference."

While no definite plan is proposed for the selection of the 1,000 delegates, it is intimated that they should be chosen by the various county committees.

So far the proposed conference has not been received with favor. Several of the candidates for governor have flatly said that they will not abide by the decision of any convention to nominate state officers.

The Iriquois Club has instructed the five state central committeemen who are members of the club—T. E. Treachy, Wm. A. Sullivan, Harry P. Flannery, R. A. Miller and J. J. Whalen—to attend the conference if it is held and opposes indorsement for either state or federal offices.

STOKES IS OUT FOR HIGH OFFICE

Frederick A. Stokes, of San Francisco has announced his candidacy for the office of lieutenant governor of the state of California, at the earnest solicitation of his many friends. He is a Democrat and in his announcement sent out today says:

"After due and deliberate consideration, I have decided to become a candidate for that high office. My life's career has been that of a business man, and if successful in obtaining the nomination in August at the regular state primaries, and then elected at the November election, I shall conduct the affairs of this office absolutely as a business man should conduct any successful private or commercial enterprise.

"I have been a life-long Democrat, and was chairman of the National Democratic Sub-Finance Committee in 1892, when Grover Cleveland was elected president of the United States by such an overwhelming majority.

"I am president of the 26th Assembly District, Democratic Club of the city of San Francisco. I am also the chairman of the Executive Committee of the Iroquois Club of San Francisco, and am treasurer of the same organization of the state of California."

A large electric sign has been installed over the drug store of Fred Lemoine at the corner of Sixth street and Macdonald avenue.

RAIN SOAKED FLIERS REACH BAKERSFIELD

BAKERSFIELD, April 22.—Silas Christofferson, rain-soaked but happy, swung down out of a cloud-covered sky yesterday afternoon and landed at 2:59 o'clock on the Kern county racetrack before a crowd that cheered madly for the winner of the San Francisco-Bakersfield air race. The throng hoisted him to their shoulders and carried him about the track in triumph.

One hour and a half later Blakely swooped from the clouds, to take second honors. He had landed at Ducor on account of gasoline shortage.

Rybitzki, the third flier, was held near Sanger by engine trouble, having become confused in his directions and being forced to land in a corn field. He will arrive tomorrow.

The winner was warmly greeted by Miss Florence Barbour, queen of the "Kern Home-Coming Week carnival." The ceremonies over, he embraced his wife while the crowd again cheered.

"Despite the rain, I had an excellent trip," said Christofferson, "and though it has rained nearly all the time I have been traveling my engine misses but little because of it. I lost my way near Visalia and was compelled to go back and in this way lost some little time, but I was soon on the right track again and hitting it up for Bakersfield."

Questions were sailed at the daring aviator from all sides.

"Where did you leave Blakely?" was asked.

"At Porterville he was giving me a merry chase," was the reply, "but I lost him in the clouds and have not seen anything of him since. His engine was hitting good and there is no reason to believe he will not be here in a short time if all goes as well with him as it did with me."

Blakely fulfilled the prediction at 4:30 o'clock.

Before Christofferson landed, the running race was over and a pacing race was on when there was a cry, "There he comes," and in the distance could be seen a faint speck which continually grew larger. Less than half a dozen minutes later Christofferson was in plain sight and it was ascertained that it was No. 5—his number. There were cheers and calls of "Good for you, Silas" as the aviator circled around the track and over the grand stand.

He alighted within a dozen feet of the judges' stand in the center of the track with the exclamation, "I landed here at 3 o'clock some weeks ago and I am back on time."

The Meaning of "Underslung"
Facts a Well-Informed Man Should Know

THE frame of an Underslung Car is swung below the axle. This type of construction brings the weight of the car nearer the road. It presents certain advantages which compel careful consideration in the selection of your automobile. You should know these facts.

FIRST—All underslungs are safer cars. Regal Underslungs are the safest cars built. By being built lower, and yet having an ample and an even clearance above the road, they reduce skidding to a minimum. Furthermore, they make "turning-turtle" next to impossible. An ordinary car will topple over on a 40 degree embankment. Regal cars with full equipment will balance at 63 degrees.

SECOND—Their spring construction makes Regal Underslungs easy riding cars. As the vibration in each "spring-half" is different, there is no violent bounce. The flatness of every spring contributes to its lateral strength and relieves side sway.

THIRD—Regal Underslungs are economical on tires and in gasoline consumption. The rebound of all springs is upward, thus relieving the strain on tire casings. Low suspension means a straight line drive, and power developed in the motor is not wasted in the propelling system. Regal cars give twenty miles to the gallon of gasoline.

FOURTH—All the Regal Underslungs are attractive cars to look upon. Their design embodies graceful lines and a low rakish appearance that is pleasing to the eye. Every owner is proud of the car he drives. Dealers are frequently led to a sale through the appearance of the car.

FIFTH—Regal Underslungs are unusually good cars. Their dependable construction and conservative price makes them worthy your careful consideration. If intending the purchase of a car, we ask you to learn more about the Underslung construction and Regal cars.

SIXTH—At your service are special correspondents in our Sales Department who will be pleased to answer further questions about Underslung construction. These facts are only a few of many which we shall be pleased to give you.

REFINERY AT MARTINEZ TO COST FIVE MILLIONS

MARTINEZ, April 22.—That approximately one half of the $10,000,000 capital of the Valley Pipe Line Company may be required in the construction of the big pipe line which is to carry the oil from the southern fields to the mammoth refinery which is to be built at Martinez is the report, leaving the other one half of the capital to be devoted to the building of the refining plant here.

It is probable that about two years will be required to complete the pipe line and while the same is being built construction work on the refinery proper will be rushed with all possible speed. The late reports of the activities of the Shell-Royal Dutch syndicate have convinced many of the local doubters that this big oil combine means business and already there have been many transfers in property, looking to the boom which will come when the big plant is built here.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Ladies! Try This! Darkens beautifully and nobody can tell—Brings back its gloss and thickness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, it is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Advt.

FOUR AMERICAN MARINES 200 MEXICANS KILLED

has requested the United States to withdraw Nelson O'Shaughnessy, U. S. charge d'affairs at Mexico City. This was reported early today on good authority, but has not been officially announced. This is a virtual declaration of war on the United States.

Mexican Charge d'affairs Algara, credited to the United States, has been instructed by Huerta to request his passports from Secretary Bryan.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Rear Admiral Badger, commanding the Atlantic fleet, officially reported to the navy department today the arrival at Vera Cruz of his flagship, the Arkansas, along with the battleships Vermont, New Jersey, New Hampshire and South Carolina. The scout cruiser Chester and the San Francisco have arrived in Vera Cruz from Tampico.

Huerta's Move Construed as War

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Interest at the governmental departments was tense today over reports that diplomatic relations between the two countries had been broken off—one of the last moves before an actual state of war.

President Wilson reached the executive offices early and conferred with Secretary Tumulty. Anticipating that all of his time would be taken up with the Mexican crisis, the president determined to receive no callers and regretfully cancelled an engagement to receive a delegation of women from the Daughters of the American Revolution.

however that President Huerta has always gone out of his way to protect foreigners, and when the American citizens were called out of Mexico by the Washington government without proper transportation facilities being provided, Huerta's government furnished to stranded Americans first class passage on their own steamers.

And now, after three and one half years of almost incessant warfare in the country with its concomitant atrocities it is high time for civilization to call a halt. The recent arrest of the blue-jackets at Tampico might not of itself have precipitated crisis at an earlier stage; it was the climax to a series of annoying episodes and the inevitable result will be the demonstration that "Might is Right." Huerta having assumed an agressive attitude in response to Uncle Sam's demand will be made a hero in the eyes of his countrymen and armed intervention by the United States army may result in their forgetting their own feuds and the uniting of the race under one standard. Their feuds are largely the result of their want of faith in one another and there was no way to bring the leaders of the factions together and make them listen to reason.

There is no typical Mexican as there is a typical American. The northern Mexican, generally speaking, is mentally and physically superior to the Mexican in the central and southern states, and even the railroads have not been sufficient to amalgamate the race into one homogeneous whole. The northern Mexican has for long wished to sever the bonds which united him to the central government. The success of the Madero revolution was largely due to the relatively higher standard of the men rallied around his standard, but even after he became president there was exhibited throughout the north the same straining to break away from the Federal center. Although it is often stated that there is no middle class in Mexico, this is not so; the peon, of course, predominates, but there is an extensive and growing middle class of fairly well educated people who own and operate stores, etc., in every town and who would be the chief factor in any reconstruction of the republic; they prey upon the peon and are in turn preyed upon by the landed proprietor. The peon class (70 per cent of the entire population) is too erractic for self government and is prosperous only when governed. The wealthy class, on the other hand, is too despotic when in power.

The invasion of the republic by the American army would certainly make Mexico an unsafe place for any foreigner during the active campaign. The majority of Mexicans are at heart anti-foreign, rather than simply anti-American, with an antipathy born of jealousy and the mixture of Spanish and Indian blood makes them cruel and brutal when angered. The comparatively few educated Mexicans who know and respect foreigners would, in most cases, be powerless to stem the tide of savagery. Every reverse suffered Mexican would make him seek revenge where he could find it.

It would seem that armed intervention is now the only way to quiet the country and therefore armed intervention is in the best interests of civilization and of the Mexicans themselves. The Mexican nation would no doubt welcome intervention coming from several of the world powers jointly for they are all weary of the endless revolution, but few will welcome intervention by the American army alone because of their want of faith in the good intentions of Uncle Sam.

If, now that intervention has been resorted to, President Wilson will put aside his weak and vacillating policy and act with a firm hand Mexico will soon be pacified and those who expect a long drawn out war will be disappointed.

Wilson Saddened by Fatal Fight

WASHINGTON, April 22.—"I'm sorry, terribly sorry," were President Wilson's first words when the news of loss of life in taking Vera Cruz first reached him today. The president was sad and disheartened. As he walked slowly to his office through the White House his head was bowed and his face a study in deep feeling and gravity.

Missionaries Flee From Mexico

NEW YORK, April 22.—American missionaries in the interior of Mexico have been ordered to proceed with all possible speed to Vera Cruz. This order was contained in a cablegram sent by the board of foreign missions of the Methodist church in this city to Dr. J. W. Butler, the board's representative in Mexico City. A reply received from Dr. Butler said that a large number of American missionaries were already en route to the coast.

"Do It Electrically"

Thos. A. Edison said:—

"We will make Electric Light so cheap that only the wealthy can afford to burn candles."

What is more homelike than the soft, generous lustre of a beautiful Electric Lamp? It adds just the needed finish to an otherwise well-appointed home. An Electric Lamp gives an air of comfortable coziness to any room—creates an atmosphere of hospitality and good cheer. For practical uses like reading or sewing, Electric Light is ideal. The light is just right; no unnecessary heat or glare.

HAVE YOUR HOUSE WIRED NOW FOR ELECTRIC LIGHT

Electric Light is only one of the many comforts you can enjoy if your home is wired for electricity. And remember that although Electric Light is by far the best illuminant it is also the most economical. Why not get in touch with us today and learn how easy it is to have your home wired for this modern necessity?

REMARKABLE BILL AT THE ORPHEUM SHOW

It will be many a long moon before more brilliant, spicier and probably a more expensive show comes to the Oakland Orpheum than that which graces the boards at the big temple of vaudeville on Twelfth street this week. The Sunday crowds laughed themselves into a state of breathlessness while these famous farceurs Johnny and Emma Ray held the stage.

They held their breath in startled admiration while Alice Eis and Bert French execused their marvelous dramatic dances La Rouge et Noir, and when the show came to an end with the wonderful performance of Bryand Cheerbert's Five Manchurians there was but one verdict to render—the most dazzling vaudeville any of us has seen in years and years.

If this week's vaudeville doesn't pack them into the Orpheum theater it will be a very strange thing indeed. The bill opens with H. H. Zazell and company's delightful comedy sketch "The Elephant" in which the fun is fast and furious throughout.

Then comes a great comedy picture entitled "When a Leopard Laughs" that is both sensational and funny.

Joseph Bernard and Hazel Harrington start the ball rolling again with a wonderfully clever dramatic skit written by Willard Mack entitled "Who is She." The play has a punch, plenty of fun and is done in brilliant style by Mr. Bernard and Miss Harrington.

Out from the wings then steps Bill Pruitt, known as the Cowboy Caruso. He is some singer. The crowd could hardly get enough of him.

Miss Alice Eis and Bert French are next on the bill and they sent the crowd out at intermission with nothing but words of highest praise for the daring dancing indulged in by the Parisian team.

After intermission the Randalls gave "17 Minutes in Arizona" which must be seen to be appreciated.

Johnny and Emma Ray are next with their hilarious farce, "On the Rio Grande." To quote the words of the program: "It is a farce with music and has to do with an incident in soldier camp life; but to quote their own words, Plot and story are not enlisted. Old Man Serious has been shot to death, King Mirth is in full command and Prince Song enters without countersign.

The crowds love Clare Inge, a delightful comedienne with some eccentric songs that are full of snap, spice and sparkle.

Marvelous indeed are the Marvelous Manchurians. They deserve their title. After a series of wonderful acrobatic and juggling features, five of them hang by their queues and go through a routine of hair raising stunts that set the crowd wild with enthusiasm.

Exclusive Orpheum Motion Pictures brought the big show to an end.

GAME LAW PETITION TO START SOON

SAN FRACISCO, April 22.—With influential men and women, clubs and other organizations throughout the state interest in the campaign begun by the People's Fish and Game Protective Association to invoke the initiative at the coming election in November for saner game regulation, the circulation of the petitions that will put the proposed new law on the ballot is being awaited with expectancy.

F. M. Bailey, secretary of the association, said yesterday that the petitions would be ready for circulation early next week in the fifty-eight counties of California.

Prepare Final Draft

The final draft of the proposed new law is now being made by Bailey and by the legal experts of the association, and will be ready for printing in a few days.

Meantime the association is awaiting answers to the communications it addressed to the boards of supervisors in the different counties, which have been asked to circulate the petitions or appoint representatives to undertake this work and other details connected with the campaign.

Movement is Popular

Few campaigns undertaken recently have met with such popular response. The chief object of the proposed new law to be invoked by the initiative is to take the control of the game of California out of the hands of the wealthy barons of the game preserves and allow the people with neither the means nor the leisure to hunt to buy game in the markets.

Under the present regulations the consumption of game, which is supposed to be the property of the people at large, is under the exclusive control of the wealthy patrons of the game preserves.

The women of California are particularly discriminated against under these regulations, as the great majority of them do not hunt and have to depend upon the markets for game. The regulations are considered especially harsh in the case of women who have been ill, game being frequently prescribed in their diet by physicians during convalescence.

Women Will Aid

The women voters of the state will be among the most spirited advocates of the new law, and their clubs and kindred organizations will play a prominent part in the circulation of the initiative petitions.

Officers of the People's Fish and Game Protective Association believe that the new law will be enacted by an overwhelming vote.

Messages promising support and co-operation in the campaign are arriving at the headquarters of the association, 1917 Vallejo street, from every county in the state.

Struckenbruck Praises Plan

Among the indorsements received yesterday by Secretary Bailey was one from Assemblyman J. W. Struckenbruck of Acampo, who has taken a conspicuous part in legislation referring to game. Assemblyman Struckenbruck said in his letter that he had read the rough draft of the proposed new law and considered it an ideal measure.

The new law not only seeks to place game at the disposal of the man and woman of average means by permitting it to be marketed, but it also contains many provisions for conserving the wild life of California. The limit shoot is reduced on many kinds of game, and the seasons for hunting are also curtailed.

The polluting of navigable streams in which fish abound is also prevented by provisions of the new law, which includes many new features to have the police at large maintain their rights in one of their great natural heritages.

BEAUTY OF FORM EASILY OBTAINED

A pardonable vanity is the desire of every woman to have a good form. Good appearance is necessary for every one that they may be presentable at any and all times for any occasion. More particularly is this true of women who are admired for their many charming qualities, not the least of which is beauty of form.

There was a time not far back in the past when to obtain this feature of beauty incurred much trouble and a great amount of discomfort. Not so, today, for corsetierres have so perfected their article of merchandise that absolute perfection of form may be had with no discomfort. Chief among the makes of corsets that have made possible the beautifying of the female form without inconvenience, is the "Warner" corset—made in models to suit every form and constructed in the most painstaking way, they have become great favorites with American women. Wherever femininity discuss dress, there you will hear the name of "Warner" mentioned in connection with corsets. No dress can be properly fitted over ill-fitting corsets and no corsets, in neat women's opinions, fit so well as Warner's. Another feature that has made the Warner corset so popular with well-dressed women is the fact that they are rust proof.

The firm of Jones & Adkison feature this corset and women can obtain any desired shape at this popular store. In addition to their excellent stock of Warner's corsets they are showing an elaborate line of Brassieres that can be obtained at a very moderate price.

The members of the Richmond Gun club will hold their first meeting of the new year in the courtroom of Justice of the Peace John Roth on Park Place, tomorrow evening, for the purpose of arranging for the coming Richmond-Martinez shoot to be held about the latter part of this month.

RICHMOND TO SEND CROWD TO LECTURE

MARTINEZ, April 22.—With all the teachers of the county and the trustees from the various school districts swelling the audience, a throng is expected from Richmond where W. J. Roberts went yesterday to provide a special train from that city for the Lindsey lecture on Friday evening of this week.

Rex L. Boyer went to Danville last evening to arrange for those coming from that section while Mrs. C. R. Leech and Mrs. Frederick Biolotti are working up the sentiment at Walnut Creek to attend the Lindsey lecture. In Concord Principal Palmer of the Concord grammar school is arranging to bring a crowd from there. Tickets are moving rapidly at A. B. Wilson's jewelry store where reservations can be made without extra cost.

Agent Stiver, of the Southern Pacific company, when asked this morning by a representative of the Record-Herald whether any arrangements had been made to provide a special train on the evening of next Friday to carry Richmondites to the Lindsey lecture to be held at Martinez on the 24th, stated that he knew nothing of any arrangements. "I certainly would know something about the matter if any arrangements had been made," said Mr. Stiver.

CONCERT COMPANY DRAWS BIG CROWD

The Powers-Brauer Concert company, of Chicago, drew a large crowd of Santa Fe employes to the entertainment last evening in the company's reading room, near the Santa Fe depot.

The entertainment proved to be one of the best ever given in Richmond and the audience showed its appreciation of the efforts of the personnel of the concert company by much applause.

Jessie Armager, in her role of impersonator, proved to be an artist in every sense of the word and she was repeatedly encored. Perry J. Power showed exceptional ability as a pianist as did Walter Brauer, as cellist.

BASE BALL CHAT AND DOPE

WHO'S WHO AND WHY

A matter that is causing great deliberation on the part of the fans and management of the local ball club is who is the person who will on Sunday afternoon catch the first ball to be flung across the plate by Mayor O. R. Ludewig. Following is a list of prominent Richmondites, any of whom have gamboled about the diamond in their younger days and who at the present time still have enough baseball vitality in their blood to again don the suits and chase the mysterious pellet. Here they are: Chief of Police Arnold, City Clerk A. Faris, Editor J. Galvin, "Doc" Brown of the Richmond Terminal, E. B. Smallwood, Julius Stiefvater, C. M. Cook, of the Oakland Traction company, Judge Hannum, Otto Dietrich.

Seated one day in the bleachers

For the sound of a grand Amen.

HIGH SCHOOL LOSES PUPIL YESTERDAY

At noon yesterday Miss Vessie Sisson, the pretty daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Sisson, packed her books at the high school building and wended her way to the corner of Twenty-third street and Macdonald avenue, where her betrothed, Harry Woods, was in waiting and the couple boarded a car for Oakland where they were later married.

The couple are widely known in this city, the groom being a trusted employe of the Pullman company.

The parents of the bride were notified of the marriage of their daughter at a late hour last evening and could scarcely believe the news. They became reconciled soon after hearing of the wedding and are preparing to give the couple a rousing welcome on their return to this city.

The great chiefs of California were entertained in royal fashion by the members of Onetah Tribe I. O. R. M. at a monster initiation and banquet held in Pythian hall last evening.

Manager Charles J. Crary of the First National Bank, will leave tomorrow morning for Bakersfield, where he goes to attend to several business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Palmer will leave this afternoon for Hopland.

STEEPLEJACKS DECORATE THE ELKS BUILDING

The Elks' home is the first of the buildings in this city to be decorated in holiday attire for the coming B. P. O. E. celebration to be held on May 1st and 2nd.

A large force of steeple jacks and building climbers kept many Richmondites staring toward the lofty top of the building today watching them in their queer stunts of stringing various streamers and flags.
